

Summer Events

Here Comes Summer!

With refreshing new venues and energising activities, summer 2009 with Business Pursuits promises to be better than ever.

Over the last 20 years, we have specialised in fun participation summer parties and have worked with many clients to create events that will live in the memory of guests for years to come.

Working with Business Pursuits puts you in the unique position of working with an owner operator of equipment, giving you the confidence that we are able to offer the flexibility required to deliver to your brief. As part of The Concerto Group, we can also offer you packaged summer venues which, when coupled with a Business Pursuits product, offer exceptional value and a level of product far superior to what your budget can usually buy.

This brochure outlines some of our favourite summer products and venues. But, if nothing immediately grabs you, why not contact us and use our wealth of experience to find a venue and create a summer party that will exceed all previous years?

"Everyone has said that they had a fantastic time and that the venue and food were amazing." VCCP

Company Fundays

An unforgettable, activity-packed day to appeal to all ages, from executives to toddlers. Over the last 20 years, Business Pursuits has built an unrivalled reputation for providing the best. A total entertainment package with activities including our very own Knockout Olympics team tournament, arena displays, funfair rides and side shows.

Our experience of entertaining over 40,000 people on Fun Days in the last three years, coupled with our selection and management of the very best venues, ensures a successful day out for your company and no organisational headaches for you.

Knockouts

If you're thinking "It's a Knockout", think again! Our Knockout Olympics is more than just a spectator sport. This totally involving event has something to get everyone going, with a great range of fun, visual, weird & whacky games, entertaining compères and experienced instructors to make sure the whole event runs smoothly.

All tournaments will kick off with a demonstration and then it's head to head as the teams compete on a series of games to win pole position for the team relay finale.

Treasure Hunts

In the last two years we have successfully delivered over 100 Treasure Hunts for our clients and what makes them so effective, memorable and fun is that they are always specially scripted for the individual client. They can be set almost anywhere, city or countryside, at home or abroad. We have run Treasure Hunts on foot, by bicycle, black cab, car, train and even by helicopter.

They are a great test of lateral thinking, teamwork, ingenuity, powers of observation and creativity. Armed with a camera or camcorder, each team has a variety of clues and quizzes in their mission pack.

"What a triumph! All our staff, without exception, have been delighted with every last detail." Glaxo Wellcome

Sports Days

Relive or rewrite your past school sports day glories. Guests are allocated their 'class' and compete head-to-head in fun and interactive challenges. These range from traditional relay races to 3-legged cocktail races, where guests are tied to each other and must produce a cocktail before racing to the finish line, all without spilling a single drop.

Our sports days are fun, colourful and a great way to spend a couple of hours before a summer BBQ and drinks.

Evening Entertainment

Sometimes a full or half day is not required and a few activities during or following dinner can be the perfect way to keep your guests entertained. Evening entertainment is almost limitless but please find a few of our favourites below.

- * Quiz Nights
- * Ice Sculpting
- * Arcade Games
- * Cocktail Challenge
- * Casino Tables

Multi Activity Events

Providing a range of activities is often the best way to keep guests of all ages and abilities entertained. Your options are limitless but a mixture of fairground rides together with country pursuits, driving and shooting activities is a guaranteed success.

Multi activity events are always tailor-made, specific to your venue and guests. Our most popular format is following a morning conference, which energises your guests and creates an experience that will be truly memorable and unique.
